

The Liturgy of Good Friday

The Gathering

All may kneel for a time of silent prayer.

The Collect

Almighty Father,
look with mercy on this your family for which our Lord Jesus Christ was content to be betrayed and given up into the hands of sinners and to suffer death upon the cross;
who is alive and glorified with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Thought

The Prayers of Intercession

President: God sent his Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

Therefore we pray to our heavenly Father for people everywhere according to their needs.

Minister: Let us pray for the Church of God throughout the world:
for unity in faith, in witness and in service, for bishops and other ministers, and those whom they serve, for Christopher and Richard, our bishops, and the people of this diocese, for all Christians in this parish,
for those to be baptized,
for those who are mocked and persecuted for their faith,
that God will confirm his Church in faith, increase it in love, and preserve it in peace.

Silence is kept.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

President: Almighty and everlasting God,
by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified: hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people, that in their vocation and ministry they may serve you in holiness and truth to the glory of your name;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Minister: Let us pray for the nations of the world and their leaders:
for all involved in the fight against coronavirus, for Elizabeth our Queen and the Parliaments of this land, for those who administer the law and all who serve in public office, for all who strive for justice and reconciliation, that by God's help the world may live in peace and freedom.

Silence is kept.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

President: Most gracious God and Father, in whose will is our peace,
turn our hearts and the hearts of all to yourself, that by the power of your Spirit the peace which is founded on justice may be established throughout the world;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Minister: Let us pray for God's ancient people, the Jews,
the first to hear his word:
for greater understanding between Christian and Jew, for the removal of our blindness and bitterness of heart, that God will grant us grace to be faithful to his covenant and to grow in the love of his name.

Silence is kept.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

President: Lord God of Abraham, bless the children of your covenant, both Jew and Christian;
take from us all blindness and bitterness of heart,
and hasten the coming of your kingdom,

when the Gentiles shall be gathered in,
all Israel shall be saved,
and we shall dwell together in mutual love and peace under the one God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Minister: Let us pray for those who do not believe the gospel of Christ:
for those who have not heard the message of salvation,
for all who have lost faith,
for the contemptuous and scornful, for those who are enemies of Christ and persecute those who follow him, for all who deny the faith of Christ crucified, that God will open their hearts to the truth and lead them to faith and obedience.

Silence is kept.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

President: Merciful God, creator of all the people of the earth,
have compassion on all who do not know you,
and by the preaching of your gospel with grace and power, gather them into the one fold of the one Shepherd;
Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Minister: Let us pray for all those who suffer:
for those who suffer in so many ways during this coronavirus pandemic, for those who are deprived and oppressed,
for all who are sick,
for those in darkness, in doubt and in despair, in loneliness and in fear, for prisoners, captives and refugees,
for the victims of false accusations and violence, for all at the point of death and those who watch beside them, that God in his mercy will sustain them with the knowledge of his love.

Silence is kept.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

President: Almighty and everlasting God,
the comfort of the sad, the strength of those who suffer:
hear the prayers of your children who cry out of any trouble, and to every distressed soul grant mercy, relief and refreshment,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Minister: Let us commend ourselves and all God's children to his unfailing love, and pray for the grace of a holy life, that, with all who have died in the peace of Christ,
we may come to the fullness of eternal life and the joy of the resurrection.

Silence is kept.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

President: O God of unchangeable power and eternal light, look favourably on your whole Church,
that wonderful and sacred mystery, and by the tranquil operation of your perpetual providence carry out the work of our salvation:
and let the whole world feel and see that things which were cast down are being raised up and things which had grown old are being made new and that all things are returning to perfection through him from whom they took their origin, even Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Standing at the foot of the cross, let us pray with confidence as our Saviour has taught us

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;

thy kingdom come;

thy will be done;

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

the power and the glory,

for ever and ever.

Amen.

The Conclusion

Silence is kept.

O Lord Jesus Christ,
Son of the living God,
set your passion, cross and death between your judgement and our souls, now and in the hour of our death.
Grant mercy and grace to the living, rest to the departed,
to your Church peace and concord and to us sinners forgiveness, and everlasting life and glory;
for, with the Father and the Holy Spirit,
you are alive and reign,
God, now and for ever.

Amen.
